OUR STORY

In an effort to provide a safe, dignified house to a family in need near Ensenada, Mexico, CrossPoint partners with a non-profit organization called Hands of Mercy. They help churches build loft houses and facilitate weekend, cross-cultural ministry opportunities. One weekend, the team puts together the prebuilt house, then another weekend, the team travels to the designated location to deliver and erect the loft house. Along with a house, the family is given a care package of essential food and items for the house, plus a Bible. Hands of Mercy in turn partners with pastors and churches in Mexico through Yugo Ministries to be the hands and feet of Jesus.
